

WRITEUP

Using MMC ,created student, Subject and class tables

Student table: Stored all student data across multiple classes

Subject table: List of subjects taught in all classes

Class table: List of classes in the school

These tables are created successfully and the query executed successfully

- Created a new repository by using git bash pushed entire code into the new repository